FAKE BOOKS

THE CLASSICAL FAKE BOOK

The Encyclopedia of over 600 Classical Themes and Melodies

An unprecedented, amazingly comprehensive reference for all classical music lovers. Imagine having one handy volume that includes everything from Renaissance music to Vivaldi to Mozart to Mendelssohn to Debussy to Stravinsky. An effort has been made to include as much of the world's most familiar classical music as possible, totalling over 600 titles. That means, for instance, a theme from every movement of every Brandenburg Concerto, or a theme from every movement of every Beethoven symphony. This encyclopedia is great to use for playing and performing. It's also a terrific reference for concert-goers, music students, or just plain music lovers. Think of how often we might think of a piece, but can't quite conjure it in our heads. With The Classical Fake Book you can find any tune readily (and be humming away in a matter of minutes). Lyrics, in the original language, are included when appropriate. All entries contain a fake book style presentation with melody line and harmony sketched in above it in chord labels.

SING OUT! PUBLICATIONS

PETE SEEGER - WHERE HAVE ALL THE FLOWERS GONE - 3RD EDITION

In this musical autobiography including over 200 songs, Seeger comments on everything from songwriting to social activism. Supported chronologically by stories, anecdotes, photos, and drawings, this collection offers a unique insight into the life and philosophy of a central figure in the modern day "folk music revival." From the 1930s, when Seeger began playing with Woody Guthrie and Leadbelly, through his almost sixty years of activism in the labor, peace, civil rights, and environmental movements, he has steadfastly held the belief that everyone should be able to participate in making music. Where Have All The Flowers Gone is a great place to begin.

WOODY GUTHRIE – ROLL ON COLUMBIA
The Columbia River Collection

In 1941, Woody Guthrie was a little-known songwriter from Oklahoma already gaining a reputation for his powerful songs about working people's lives and struggles. The Bonneville Power Administration, a U.S. government agency, was looking for someone to write songs for a documentary movie they wanted to make to promote their work bringing cheap public power to the people of the Northwest. They ended up hiring Woody – and one of the most extraordinary examples of public patronage of the arts in music history unfolded. Now, for the first time, all 26 songs, collected and edited by Bill Murlin, are included in one book, with commentary by Pete Seeger, Alan Lomax, Hobe Kyr, Arlo Guthrie, Mary Guthrie Boyle, and Woody himself. 96 pages.
